

Little Things

#1-April, 2017

to do to stay sane in the Trumpocalypse
 Boy, does it suck now, or what? I guess you could say "it is what it is..." - or you can join in + try to make a change. Here's a few little things. More soon.

1. ORGANIZATIONS TO JOIN

ACLU on the Frontlines of protecting our civil rights every day. Very informative Magazine, too. www.aclu.org

2. AARP Real Possibilities

Are you a member of this powerful lobbying group? If so, give them a call or email them to let them know how important the Affordable Care Act + Medicare are to you. (888) 687-2277, or member@aarp.org

Planned Parenthood Care. No matter what.

In the crosshairs of every right-wing dumbass jerk, this crucial life-saving org is a no-brainer to support. plannedparenthood.org

4. Find your local resistance group + join in. Odds are there is an indivisible chapter right near you. Connect with other progressives, get energized + learn how to organize + take action. Check out indivisibleguide.org

6. Let the FCC know that you support Net Neutrality. Right now it's 2-1 against. Call (888) 225-5322, then press 4, then 2, then zero. Also email chairman-ajit.pai@fcc.gov

7. Get ready for the March for Science on April 22. Is there one in your area? Never marched before? Seez- who has? But we've never had a Prez this messed up before!!

3. Is your city a sanctuary city? How cool is that?!? Take a minute to thank your leadership. They get crap all the time, + will appreciate a kind word. In San Jose, for example, call Mayor Liccardo at (408) 535-4800, or email mayor@mail.sanjoseca.gov

5. Help Flip Seats From RED TO BLUE. Check out Flippable.Org to see what elections are coming up - and then give a few bucks to some of the politicians, and/or volunteer, like phone banking. Every seat we get takes a little bit of power from the Reps. (Also see our sister Fanzine "Seat Flipper.")

8. Next anti-Trump threat on FB post the INDIVISIBLE link + urge everyone to JOIN THE RESISTANCE!
